A lady bud woke up to find that all of his spots blew away overnight. OH NO! He was very confused because this has never happened before. Where should he go to look for his missing spots?

The Ladybug Hunt

outside his leaf home

under his bed

Ladybug sees the spots spread all throughout the ground! next to him there is a giant spider web and also a bumble bee hive. It came to mind that Ladybug can use both of these to help put the spots back on. How can Ladybug do that?

Take the spider web and bee stinger to sew the spots back on

Who cares! Embrace the red

Ladybug doesn't see anything under his bed .
